

WCR Member Benefits:

WCR Meetings

General WCR Meetings are designed to create networking opportunities for new and current members. Forming new business relationships can enhance your daily business through our Referral Program plus grant you an opportunity to discuss business related topics with industry peers and affiliate member professionals.

These meetings also provide Industry Related Educational and Motivational Speakers. WCR meetings offer enhanced industry knowledge which provide credibility, knowledge and information, which others look for when selecting a real estate professional. Visit our upcoming Calendar of Events for 2009 scheduled speakers.

After 5 Socials

Our After 5 Socials are scheduled monthly at various locations throughout the greater Jacksonville area. They offer a relaxed and casual atmosphere to network and form valuable business relationships which enhance your business. We also encourage potential new members to attend these events and meet our members and affiliate members as well. If you are interested in joining this committee, please contact the WCR Social Committee Chairman, Chris Davis at cell: 904-591-6776 Chris.Davis@53.com

Performance Management Network (PMN)

PMN is a Realtor designation built from the ground up to bring you real world skills, know-how and talents that will keep your business out in front and on top of our evolving market. Increasing your designations promote your knowledge and marketability to potential clients. For more information visit the national website <http://www.wcr.org/> today!

Conferences and Tradeshows

Conferences and Tradeshows offer WCR Members a fun and exciting opportunity to form strategic relationships on a District, State and National levels. Conferences are held annually while Tradeshows opportunities are held quarterly or semi-annually. Our Tradeshows highlight Real Estate related professionals as they showcase their services to enhance your business and provide excellence in customer service levels through out the home buyer process. Visit our national website at <http://www.wcr.org/> for upcoming 2009 opportunities.

Volunteer Opportunities

Involvement and participation is an excellent way to learn more about your local community. This is an exciting forum in which to increase your visibility within our marketplace and give back to the areas we serve. The level of involvement you pledge will determine your professional real estate business rewards as we join well-established events sponsored by other local associations, organizations and businesses in Jacksonville and the surrounding areas. We encourage you to participate in as many outreach opportunities as possible to promote your business and WCR awareness in the area.

Fundraising Events

While often held quarterly, fund raising events heighten our awareness and highlight our dedication to providing a progressive and successful local WCR chapter and organization to our members and member affiliates alike.

Our local fund raising events provide real estate and real estate related professionals a link to join together and support our local Chapter. We value the ability to bring our real estate professionals, affiliates and community together for various causes. Your involvement contributes directly to our success and we encourage your participation at any level. For more information on this please contact Andrew Bell at 904-294-3739 Andrew.bell@rels.info and tell him you wish to help with fundraising.

WCRJax.com

Regional, State and National Rosters are located @ <http://www.wcrfl.com/> (state) <http://www.wcr.org/> (national), and our own chapter's website <http://wcrjax.com/>. We encourage you to refer out of area clients to other WCR members throughout the Organization. Message boards are also offered to our members as well. While visiting these message boards you can post general questions, concerns or information for other WCR members across the nation.
